PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Let Us Break Bread Together/ Bread of the World
Trinity Ringers

arr. Sandra Eithun

✠ CALL TO WORSHIP

Alan Capps

The Most High anointed Jesus Christ to console the afflicted.

Come, let us worship the One who comforts us!

The Eternal anointed Jesus Christ to emancipate the enslaved.

Come, let us worship the One who liberates us!

The God of compassion anointed Jesus Christ to bind up the wounded.

Come, let us worship the One who heals us!

The God of peace anointed Jesus Christ to deliver the troubled.

Come, let us worship the One who rescues and saves us!

✠ OPENING COLLECT

Pastor Bill Davis

Blessed are you, Father of great and everlasting glory, for by the power of your Holy Spirit
you have consecrated your Word made flesh and have established Jesus Christ, our Savior, as the Light of the world,
your covenant of peace for the entire creation.

As we celebrate today the mystery of Jesus' baptism in the river Jordan, renew in us our own baptism:
pattern our lives on this Christ,
the One whom you have chosen,
the One on whom your favor rests,
the Beloved with whom you are well pleased,
your only-begotten Son, Jesus, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen.

TIME WITH YOUNG CHRISTIANS

Jill Robinson

We encourage children to stay and participate in worship. If necessary, however, preschool-age children (those not yet in kindergarten) and younger may go upstairs to the Nursery in room 210. Worship bags for elementary age children can be obtained from an usher.

The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

Carol Bowers, Marla Mead, soprano; Sharon Taylor, Gretchen Regehr, alto;

In the first light of a new day no one knew He had arrived. Things continued as they had been while a newborn softly cried. But the heavens wrapped in wonder knew the meaning of His birth; in the weakness of a baby they knew God had come to earth. As His mother held him closely it was hard to understand that this baby not yet speaking was the Word of God to Man. He would tell them of His Kingdom but their hearts would not believe. They would hate Him and in anger they would nail Him to a tree. But the sadness would be broken as the song of life arose, and the first-born of creation would ascend and take His throne. He had left it to redeem us but before His life began, He knew He'd come back not as a baby but as the Lord of every man. Hear the angels as they're singing on the morning of His birth, but how much greater will our song be when he comes again to rule the earth.

SERVICE OF THE BAPTISMAL COVENANT II

Hymnal no. 39 (Sections 4, 8, 9, and 11)

HYMN

Wash, O God, Our Sons and Daughters

Hymnal no. 605

COMMENDATION AND WELCOME

Members of the household of God, I commend this person to your love and care.
Do all in your power to increase her faith, confirm her hope, and perfect her in love.

We give thanks for all that God has already given you and we welcome you in Christian love.

As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of The United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

The God of all grace, who has called us to eternal glory in Christ, establish you and strengthen you by the power of the Holy Spirit, that you may live in grace and peace.

WORDS OF INVITATION

Pastor Bill Davis

All who thirst, come to the water and drink deeply of these living streams.
Come, all who are weary; come, all who yearn for forgiveness.
Our gracious God beckons and blesses us.
Let us humbly confess our sin, and seek God's mercy.

God of mercy, in baptism you graft us into the body of Christ, and promise us forgiveness of sin and abundance of life.

We confess that we fail to live as forgiven people.

We keep destructive habits and hold onto grudges.

We allow our past to hold us hostage and are reluctant to welcome renewal.

In your loving-kindness have mercy on us and free us from our sin.

Assure us with the promises you have made and transform us to live as your holy people, claimed in the waters of promise and rebirth;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

(Silence for reflection and confession)

You did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption.

When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ. (Romans 8:15-17)

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
Glory to God. Amen.

✠THE PEACE

In Christ, God has made us one, setting God’s own seal upon us and, as a pledge of what is to come, giving us the Spirit to dwell in our hearts.

The peace of the Lord be with you.

And also with you.

All offer one another words and signs of peace and reconciliation.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

The Jesus Gift

Gilbert Martin

Hannah Stone, soprano; Tucker Stone, piano

Shall I gather emeralds, shall I bring Him gold, shall I shower diamonds white hard, bright cold? Shall I spangle jewels like stars above; give Him laughter, bring peace filled laughter, offer him warm laughter and love. Simplest of gifts, gentlest of hearts, kindness He'll use as He leads; So give him these gifts, hand Him your heart, honor His birth and you'll need no emeralds nor rubies, silver nor gold, neither bright diamonds white hard, bright cold, spangle not rich jewels like stars above; You'll have laughter, sweet peace filled laughter, simple warm laughter and love.

✠THE DOXOLOGY

Gloria

Hymnal no. 238 (refrain)

Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

✠PRAYER OF GREAT THANKSGIVING

Paul Taylor, Leader

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

...and so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Repeated sections are sung first by the Leader and then by All Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord. God of pow - er and might. hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry Ho - san - na in the high - est Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,

Ho - san - na in the high - est.

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us,
as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Repeated sections are sung first by the Leader and then by All Christ has died, Christ is ris - en, Christ will come a - gain.

All honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

Repeated sections are sung first by the Leader and then by All

A - men, a - men, a - - men.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

GIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

We invite all persons to the Lord's Table. This is the table, not of the church, but of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love Him and for those who want to love Him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow, and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is His will that those who want Him should meet Him here.

Following the direction of the ushers, please come to the Communion station nearest you. The center station is for those who require gluten-free bread. We serve Holy Communion by intinction. Please extend your hands to receive the bread and then dip the bread into the cup as it is offered to you. After you partake, you also may kneel at the rail for prayer and meditation.

ANTHEM DURING COMMUNION

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Pastor Bill Davis

Eternal God,
we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us and by which you empower us to do all you call us to do.
Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

✠HYMN

O Splendor of God's Glory Bright

Hymnal no. 679

✠DISMISSAL WITH BLESSING

Pastor Bill Davis

God the Father, who led the magi by the shining of a star to find the Christ, the Light from Light, lead you also in your pilgrimage to find the Lord.

Amen.

God the Son, who turned the water into wine at the wedding feast at Cana, transform your lives and make glad your hearts.

Amen.

God the Holy Spirit, who came upon the beloved Son at his baptism in the river Jordan, pour out his gifts on you who have come to the waters of new birth.

Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Today's Anthem In The First Light was written by Bob Kauflin (a member of the Christian a cappella group GLAD) and is another adaptation for Trinity's Mixed Octet by our own Paul Taylor. In this piece we begin with a soft trio singing about Christ's birth. As the rest of the octet joins in, we sing about His life, death on the cross, and resurrection. The piece concludes looking forward to the time when, at the second coming, Christ will return not as a baby but as the Lord of every man. The excitement builds with simulated Herald Trumpets over lyrics proclaiming that the celebration will be even greater than that at His birth.

Today we present for the Sacrament of Baptism Cecily Rae Stowell, daughter of Holly Gilbert and Jay Tyler Stowell, born on July 2, 2017 at Inova Hospital in Alexandria, VA.

The flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God.

Please join us following worship in the Narthex for refreshments and fellowship with our church family.

Stewardship Update: 84 Commitments have been submitted for 2018, totaling $353,377.

Pastor's Helping Fund: Just a friendly reminder that your communion offering goes to the Pastor's Helping Fund, which helps provide emergency assistance to local families in need. TRINITY UMC'S WEEKLY NEWS

Join us on Sunday January 21 at 5:30 PM in the Fellowship Hall for a "Loving" discussion with Pastor Youtha Hardman-Cromwell. She leads us in a discussion of the movie "Loving." This movie is the story of Richard and Mildred Loving, a couple whose arrest for interracial marriage in 1960's Virginia began a legal battle that would end with the Supreme Court's historic 1967 decision. Youtha has direct connections to this case and will be sharing her perspectives on the movie and the court case. She also will lead us in a discussion in which we explore the connection between interracial marriage and current social justice topics. We will also explore those beliefs we hold or have held that contribute to oppression and the basis of those beliefs. You definitely don't want to miss this opportunity! It is a pot luck dinner so please bring a dish to share. Activities for children will be provided. Questions? Contact our Director of Christian Formation, Carrie Pritts at christianformation@trinityalexandria.org.

Read and Join! Book Group starts in January: Join friends and invite friends to take part in the January book group where we discuss Richard Rohr's, Falling Upward, starting Sunday, January 21, 5:30 - 7 PM in the Parlor. With Jill Robinson taking the lead, the group meets January 28, February 11 and February 18. For more information contact Jill Robinson: jillrobinson55@gmail.com. From Rohr's book jacket: This message of "falling down" - that is in fact moving upward - is the most resisted and counterintuitive of messages in the world's religions, including and most especially Christianity. Richard Rohr offers a new paradigm for understanding how our failings can be the foundation for our ongoing spiritual growth. We grow spiritually more by doing it wrong that by doing it right.

Join Us for Confirmation 2018! Confirmation classes offer a concentrated focus on the basics of the Christian story; the core beliefs, practices, and emphases of United Methodist Christians; and the commitment that comes with being confirmed as a professing member of The United Methodist Church. Using the Credo curriculum, Confirmation 2018 is a 12-session experience that begins on Sunday, February 18, from 5:30 to 7:00 PM. We encourage all students in grade 6 and beyond to register their intention to participate with our Director of Christian Formation, Carrie Pritts at christianformation@trinityalexandria.org.

Christmas cheer came early at Christ House when Martha Ellett, George Hastings, and Steve Norwood prepared and served dinner on December 10 to the homeless and hungry. We know all the participants were grateful, and Trinity members thank you for your loving service. The next opportunity to volunteer, Sunday, January 14, is coming up quickly. Please let Susan Willis know if you have interest or availability to serve at shwillis76@gmail.com.

Our Music Program at Trinity is open to all! We invite you to join us as we begin a new season of anthems for singing and compositions for ringing. In addition, if there are those who wish to contribute instrumental music to our services, please know that your talents are welcome. We will be preparing music for the New Year, with rehearsals resuming the first week in January. We have a three octave set of handbells and need more ringers to complete the choir. If you have experience but cannot commit, you could offer to be a substitute ringer. The Chancel Choir welcomes new singers in all sections. There are no auditions for any of the choirs. Come try us out! And if you wish some private coaching, that is also available. Contact Linda Cancellieri, our Music Director with any questions at music@trinityalexandria.org.

Trinity Has a New Website! Over the last few months we've been searching for a new website provider, developing content and WE ARE LIVE! Visit us at our old address: www.trinityalexandria.org. Our new provider Brick River specializes in hosting websites for many United Methodist Churches. They provide a platform that is incredibly easy to configure and contains links to the national UMC news. Our new website is an important component in our outreach to the community highlighting our friendly congregation, inter-generational leadership, inspiring sermons, and traditional music. We invite you to explore the site and be sure to try it on your mobile device!

Be a Part of SUYTI 2018! The Youth Theology Institute at Shenandoah University is now accepting nominations and applications for the 2018 cohort! Application requirements: completed application form; letter of reference from your pastor or youth leader; be in high school; identify as a Christian and be interested in exploring how your faith intersects with who you are and what you're called to do in the world. Final application deadline is May 1, 2018. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Apply as soon as possible. Have questions? Want more information? Contact Carrie Pritts, our Director of Christian Formation at christianformation@trinityalexandria.org.

Commission on Way Forward Booklet Released: In the November 9 press release from the Commission on a Way Forward and the Council of Bishops, there was a promise to provide a booklet that listed some of the resources that the Commission has been using as part of its preparation for an interim report to the Council of Bishops. The booklet can be found at www.vaumc.org/ncfilepository/News2017/COWF_Handbook_2017_REVISED.pdf.

Council of Bishops
The United Methodist Church
2018 New Year's Greetings

To the People Called United Methodists:

Grace and peace to you as we embrace the New Year.

The joy of Christmas and the gift of Emmanuel – God with us – gives us the confidence to face the future with hope. This hope is born of our faith in the Living God. Thus, as we enter the New Year we affirm that God who started a good thing in us will see it to fruition.

As United Methodists, we are at a precipitous moment, uncertain about our denomination's future. Yet, we do know that we have been raised up as a people to share in God's mission by spreading scriptural holiness across the globe. And, we know that God knows what form this mission will take in the future.

As a Council of Bishops, we have been in unceasing prayer, asking God to open our hearts and minds to discern what God would have us do to lead our global movement. We thank you for your earnest prayers and invite you to continue to pray for the Commission on a Way Forward and the Council as our work continues and we prepare for the 2019 Special Session of the General Conference.

Likewise, every part of the world where our United Methodist Connection is present is in the throes of dramatic upheaval, conflict, poverty, migrations or natural disasters. As we enter 2018, let us resolve to be tireless in our efforts to bring health, healing, recovery and transformation to a broken world.

Let us be unflinching in our commission to reach new people with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Let us be fully available to grow in our love of God and neighbor. Let us renew our commitment to always and everywhere practice our Rule of Life – do no harm, do good, attend to the ordinances of God.

The New Year is a time for renewing the covenant. John Wesley clearly understood that covenant cannot be manufactured or maintained by structural, administrative or compulsory means. He knew that covenant-making and covenant-keeping were spiritual matters—a function of offering one's life to God and to God's purposes above all else.

The first celebration of the Covenant Service in the Methodist movement was held on Monday, August 11, 1755. In short order, covenant renewal services were being held on New Year's Day in class meetings and societies of the Methodist revival movement. Many United Methodist churches utilize this service in their own Watch Night or New Year's Day worship. Many United Methodists can recite all or portions of Wesley's invitation to his Covenant Service as deftly as they can recite the Lord's Prayer, the Apostle's Creed or Psalm 23.

The words are powerful and provocative. I believe they may hold the key to our seeking a way forward. They invite a measure of humility, integrity, denial and surrender that is often discomfiting and disorienting to our pre-conceived, siloed positions.

They clearly remind us that we belong to Christ, and that to give ourselves to Christ in all things is the heart and soul of all covenantal relationships within our great United Methodist Church.

So, as we enter into 2018 and trust that God will provide a future with hope, I invite all United Methodist's to renew our covenant with God and one another, as we join Methodist people throughout the ages in praying the Covenant Prayer, which in part reads:

Lord, make me what you will I put myself fully into your hands;
put me to doing, put me to suffering, let me be employed for you, or laid aside for you,
let me be full, let me be empty,
let me have all things, let me have nothing.
I freely and with willing heart give it all to your pleasure and disposal. Amen.

May God add God's blessing to our journey together as a covenant people and grant us a blessed New Year.

Bishop Bruce R. Ough, President
Council of Bishops
The United Methodist Church

The Welcome Statement of Trinity United Methodist Church is:

"Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me." Matthew 10:40

Trinity United Methodist Church is committed to be a congregation of Open Hearts, Open Minds and Open Doors. We believe all people are of sacred worth and dignity as part of God's creation and as demonstrated by the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. As God's love extends to all, we welcome everyone without exception, regardless of age, race, ethnicity, gender, family structure, socio-economic or marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental ability, faith history or life experience. We recognize that we are all different, and those differences make us a stronger community of faith as we worship together to grow in our relationship with God and one another.

The Mission of Trinity United Methodist Church is:

Building a strong Christian community to find, share, and celebrate the love of Christ in our hearts, neighbors and our world.
